

A Day in Colonial History

Take a day and step back more than 200 years to discover Charleston's essential function in the American Revolution. Students will learn how many of the country's forefathers utilized Charleston as a headquarters in forming our nation.

At Drayton Hall Plantation students will learn about the American Revolution in the Lowcountry and specifically the significant role Drayton Hall played as a headquarters for both the British and American forces throughout the war.

Ask about how this trip fits
Curriculum Standards!

Trip will include
3 Curriculum Based Activities
Lunch delivered to Plantation
Motorcoach Permits
All Taxes & Gratuities

Old Exchange Building & Provost Dungeon

Drayton Hall Plantation

Picnic Lunch at Plantation

Patriots of Charleston Walking Tour

Depart
(Boxed Dinner Available)

Itineraries can be customized at the group's request.
Order of activities may be modified due to availability.

The Patriots of Charleston Walk takes students on a journey through the colonial period, into the American Revolution, and into the beginnings of the new republic.

See the homes of influential Patriots and tour the Old Exchange Building & Provost Dungeon where the Declaration of Independence was read to Charlestonians and where the US Constitution was ratified.